Tom Meyer
The Bible Memory Man

Prof. Tom Meyer attended Shasta Bible College in Redding, CA to earn his B.A. in Bible and Theology. After this he pursued his Biblical Studies abroad. He moved to Jerusalem, Israel, where he earned two master's degrees at Jerusalem University College. During his 1,000 day stay in Israel and neighboring countries, he had such adventures as witnessing to Prime Minister Shimon Peres, sailing the Nile River, climbing Mount Sinai, and meeting his future wife. Shortly thereafter, Meyer began to present complete books of the Bible dramatically from heart as the sermon. His unique gifting has made him the feature of numerous media interviews with outlets such as Fox News, Moody Radio, The Jerusalem Post, etc. Tom teaches at Shasta Bible College and speaks the Word of God dramatically from memory, including the entire book of Revelation, every Sunday in a different local church as a full-time ministry. He and his wife have four children. Tom will be speaking dramatically the book of Revelation at the conference!

Hannah Eldridge

Hannah Eldridge, a native of PA, is a freelance violinist in the D.C. Metropolitan area. For over 7 years, she was a member of the U. S. Army Band "Pershing's Own" where she regularly performed as featured soloist, chamber musician and as part of the Army Strings for national and international heads of state and for our nation's top military leadership. Ms. Eldridge holds a dual master's degree in violin performance and chamber music from the University of Michigan and a bachelor's degree with honors in violin performance from Northwestern University. She has been a member of the Ann Arbor, Annapolis, Richmond, Virginia and Maryland Symphonies. Currently, she is a substitute violinist for the National Symphony Orchestra. Hannah also enjoys serving in the music ministry at her home church, Grace Baptist Church of Bowie, MD and resides in Crownsville, MD with her husband Brian and their four children.

Cheryl Stitzinger

Jesus came to our world “. . . not to be served, but to serve and to give his life a ransom for many”. There are rich rewards in following this same path our Savior exemplified. Jesus himself said, “It is more blessed to give than to receive.” Servanthood is a hallmark of the Christian life. Cheryl has found this to be a great joy and “the joy of the Lord is our strength.” She loves to serve others through her HOPE ministry (Helping Others Through Prayer and Encouragement). Cheryl is the mother of three grown children, grandmother of eight, women’s ministry leader, singer, and counselor (hopeandgracecounsel@gmail.com). Cheryl holds a BS undergraduate degree and a MAC (Master of Arts in Counseling) degree from Westminster Theological Seminary). She resides in beautiful Bucks County, Pennsylvania with her husband of 45 years. In her leisure time she enjoys spending time with her grandchildren, gardening, painting, antiquing and hiking in God’s incredible cathedral!

Designs Of Grace

Christa Mielke

Christa Mielke is from Austin, MN where her husband is the Senior Pastor at Grace Baptist church. As a wife and mom of 3 children, her priority and delight is her home. She has also loved entering into ministry alongside her husband as God allows. Pastor Dan and Christa have been in full-time ministry for 16 years. Throughout those years, God has grown her and given her many opportunities to serve Him including working with teen girls and counseling women. Music is a joy and is an integral part of the Mielke home and ministry. Life on life, mutually intentional, Titus 2 relationships are extremely important to her and she values the opportunity to pour into other women and to be poured into by Godly women. Christa is passionate about deep study of the Word of God and delights in sharing it when God opens a door within the women’s ministry at her church and conferences or women’s events. She loves spending time with her family, studying, listening to music, reading a good book, splashing in puddles with her kids, cycling and being warm.

Jason Pankonin

Pastor

Jason Pankonin is the pastor of Cedarville Baptist Church in Cedarville, IL. He received his bachelor’s degree at Mankato State University. Jason was a Social Studies teacher for New Ulm Public Highschool for 22 years. Eventually, he surrendered to the call of pastoral ministry in October of 2016. He later became a graduate of Pastoral Training Institute and was ordained at Calvary Baptist Church in Granada, MN, on May 1st, 2021. He lives in Freeport, IL, with his wife Darlene and 5 of their 6 children. For more info on how he was called into ministry, visit the CBC church website and look for a page named “Meet the Pastor.”
